I, the undersigned Henry (first name/last name), born on (date of birth) and resident (address) In the event of death, make the following arrangements:

For the attention of my heirs and executor, to facilitate the identification of my assets after my death, I wish to list some of them. This list is not intended to be exhaustive:

- Cryptocurrency account (description as precise as possible);
- Bank account (name of bank and IBAN);
- IWC Spitfire watch model 4015;

I hold a claim against Mr. Max (first name/last name/address) amounting to CHF 50,000.

I replace all previous provisions with these testamentary provisions.

The amount of CHF 100,000 transferred to my daughter Léa (first name/last name) on date (date of donation) will have to be deducted from his share of the inheritance.

Before distributing my estate to my heirs, I wish to make the following bequests within the meaning of Article 484 of the Civil Code:

- I am bequeathing my IWC Spitfire watch, model 4015, to Jean (name/surname/date of birth/address).
- I bequeath the sum of CHF 10,000 to the Swiss League Against Cancer (exact address).

In the event that a bequest would have the effect of infringing on the reserved portion of the estate, it must be reduced accordingly.

Once the aforementioned bequests have been executed, I distribute the balance of my estate (hereinafter "the disposable portion") to the heirs mentioned below:

- My wife Anne (first name/last name) will have to receive the statutory reserved portion calculated according to the law as well as 50% of the disposable portion.

- My daughter Léa (first name/last name) will have to receive the statutory reserved portion calculated according to the law as well as 25% of the disposable portion.
- My son Nicolas (first name/last name) will have to receive his reserved portion of the estate as well as 25% of the disposable portion.

My share of our house located (full address of the property) the proceeds going to our children will be left in usufruct to my wife Anne.

Among my heirs, I establish the following rules for the division of my estate:

- My wife Anne (first name/last name) will receive my XXX brand car.
- My daughter Léa (first name/last name) will receive my musical instruments.
- My son Nicolas (first name/last name) will receive my collection of old books.

Assets distributed according to the division rule must be valued at their market value.

I leave it to my heirs to decide amongst themselves how the balance of my estate will be divided in accordance with the aforementioned rules.

If the allocation of one of the aforementioned assets to one of my heirs were to exceed their inheritance share, they would owe compensation to the other heirs. In case of refusal, the division rule is nullified.

In the event that my wife sells the Audi, my daughter Léa (first name/last name) will be able to exercise a right of pre-emption.

I appoint as executor of my will the Study (company name, person's name).
